NUMB. 1765

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9. 1741.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Flanders.

Vienna, Nov. 1.

LAST Tuesday Night two hundred Rascals, under a Lieutenant-Colonel enter'd the Enemy's Camp, which is between Wilshoffen and Mantern, and alarm'd it very much, but we don't hear they did it much Harm; and next Morning the Party return'd to General Palfi's Camp at Sieghardskirchen.

Leagues from this City.

Rec'd of a Letter from Amsterdam, Nov. 14. N.S.

Advices from Dresden say, a great Train of Artillery marching there, which is consign'd to a French Commander, who has advanc'd 30000 Rixdollars in Hand the Carriage of it: Whether this Artillery is sold or sent to France, they seem there not to know; any more than what passes in the Conferences between the Electors of State and the General Officers, which, my independent says, are very frequent, and commonly last four or five Hours at a time. He says, that in rummaging the Archives of the Court, they have laid their hands on some old Charts and Instruments written in Bohemian Language, which they are translating, in hopes of finding something that may be for their Purpose in the present Juncture. 'Tis now no more a Mystery why the Court Printing-house at Dresden was kept shut for some Time past. 'Twas concluded that something of great Importance was in the Press, which appears now to be a Manifesto in Justification of the King of Poland's Conduct.

The Elector of Bavaria has also publish'd a Manifesto, which he sent into Bohemia before he enter'd it with his Army, to set forth his Title to that Kingdom. People at Berlin seem to be still in the dark as to the Affairs of Silesia, and even in the Prussian Army know not what to make of the late Agreement, which they call only a Sort of a Peace; because when Queen's Army had abandon'd all Silesia, they did not doubt but they should find the Gates of Neiss open, and sustain'd a Siege of several Days, and at last an honourable Capitulation.

They write from Francfort, that the Ambassadors of the Elector have resolv'd to suspend the Electoral Suffrage of Bohemia for this Time; and that the Queen of Hungary's Ambassador for that Kingdom is retir'd to wait for Orders from the Court of Prefect. A Friend at Madrid writes, that Money begins to scarce again, since Don Campillo was brought into the City; which they look upon as an Argument of great Confidence the Publick has in him. He adds, that the News we have had in some of the Foreign States, that the Bishop of Rennes, the French Ambassador, had caught his Secretary in a Correspondence with the English, and had therefore put him under Arrest, is a malicious, groundless Calumny, which would propagate much less credit, who knew the Secretary's Character.

There's Advice from Smyrna, that there was lately the Sign of a Plague breaking out, which made the Turks remove into the Country, but it was of no consequence, and they are return'd again to the Town. Letters from Germany say, the Elector of Bavaria had a Fever, attended with a Spitting of Blood, and was thought to be owing to his too violent Hunting. According to Advices from the Country, the French strip the Peasants of all they have, and take the Abbots and Parsons for Hostages for their Contributions: It seems they have the Country with such a Conternation, that they know not where to fly. They lately impos'd a Contribution of eleven hundred thousand German Marks on the Prelacy of Molck, of which they had receiv'd a Million, all the Abbots of the Country furnish'd their Quota to it, except the Abbot of Cumbs-munster, who thinking to escape, had his Treasure before him to Gratz, which consisted of 600000 Florins; but he was arrested by the Elector of Bavaria, who told him, that he knew from his Hands that he had sent his Money to Gratz, and therefore he had best recal it, which the Prelate promised to do, but the Court at Presbourg has thought fit to keep it.

Correspondent at Paris concludes his Letter thus: Hopes of a Peace begin to vanish. It was supposed that at the Approach of our Forces the Queen of Hungary would have comply'd, and accepted the Plan of Partition that was propos'd to her. But as we hear, she still thinks to form a powerful League in the Winter, our Court takes their Measures in consequence, and has therefore resolv'd to go on with the Expedition to Italy. The Lord Harrington too, we hear, made such Proposals when he was last at the Hague, that if they had been accepted, might have contributed to restore the Balance of Power in Europe; but he did not find some of the principal Members of the Republick so well inclin'd as he could have wish'd, they being so much ruffled at a late Transaction concluded without their Privy, that it will require some Time to bring them to Temper.

L O N D O N, November 9.

From the London Gazette.

Whitehall, Nov. 4. A Letter, by the Way of Portugal, received this Day from Capt. Legge, of his Majesty's Ship the Severn, one of Commodore Anson's Squadron, dated at Rio Janeiro, July 4. 1741, brings the following Account:

'That Commodore Anson, with the Fleet under his Command, sail'd from the Island of St. Catherine's on the 19th of January last, and after meeting with hard Gales of Wind, in which the Pearl lost Company, anchor'd the 19th of February at Port St. Julian's; that during the Time the Pearl was separated, Capt. Kidd the Commander thereof died, and the Ship was chased off Peppy's Island by a Squadron of Spanish Men of War of five Sail; that the Commodore appointed Capt. Murray to succeed him at Port St. Julian's; that they left St. Julian's the 27th of February, and the 7th of March pass'd the Straights of La Maire with great Success and fair Weather, but the next Day met with fresh Gales, which from that time increas'd to such very hard Gales from N. N. W. to W. N. W. with such prodigious Seas as exceeded any they had ever seen before, which tore their Shrouds and Sails, and sprung their Yards and Masts. That on the 10th of April they were in the Latitude of 55 d. 55 m. and Longitude 91 d. 54 m. and that Night they lost Sight of the Commodore and all the Squadron, except the Pearl; that on the 13th in the Morning they saw the Land at Day-break from the W. N. W. to the S. E. very high, and not above five Leagues distant, upon Sight of which they endeavour'd to wear, which they were more than an Hour before they could perform, and then stood to the Westward as much as the Winds would permit them; but the Wind coming to N. W. by W. and W. N. W. and blowing almost a continual Storm for 40 Days together, with exceeding great Seas, they beat most of the Time under Reef Courses. That on the first of June they spoke with a Portuguese Vessel bound to Bahia, who told them Cape Frio bore W. S. W. 30 Leagues; and on the 6th of June, by the great Mercy of God, they arriv'd safe in this Port, where they were receiv'd with exceeding great Friendship and Humanity, after having lost a great Number of Men by Fatigue and Sickniss; amongst which last were the Captain, Lieutenant, and Ensign of the Invalids.

'At this Place there was an Officer belonging to one of the Ships of the Spanish Squadron of 70 Guns, which was cast away at Santa Martha near this Place, who is returning to Spain to give an Account of their Misfortune. They were in Latitude of 60 odd South, and bore up the 17th of March N. S. The Spanish Commodore got into Rio de Plata with two Ships more, the Particulars of which Ships are, that they had buried 1200 Men with Famine and Sickniss. One of their Squadron is still wanting, and suppos'd to have perished, having lost her Main-mast before they parted with her; so that the whole Account of the Spanish Squadron amounts to three at Monte Video, one cast away at Santa Martha, and one perished at Sea.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Nov. 10.

'Our last Letters from Constantinople have brought us a great deal of important News; They are dated Sept. 16, and confirm the Accounts we formerly had, that the Differences between Russia and the Porte are entirely accommodated, that the Grand Seigneur has agreed to own the Czar for Emperor of Russia; that the Slaves and Prisoners on both Sides shall be immediately releas'd; that the Fortress of Afoph is shortly to be demolish'd; and that the Spot is actually fix'd, where the Russians are to erect a new Fort. There are some Reports spread in this City relating to Kouli Kan, as if he had projected the entire Subject on of all the Nations inhabiting the Borders of the Caspian Sea; also that a formidable Conspiracy has been lately fram'd against him, in consequence of which an Attempt had been made to assassinate him in a Wood, where by a Shot made at him he was wounded in the Arm, and lost one of his Fingers. It is likewise reported that his eldest Son is dead. But all this meets with little Credit from discerning People, who believe that these are Stories invented to palliate some bad News from Bagdad, which the Court has receiv'd, and cannot long keep secret.

'Advices from Rome, of the 21st of October, mention very extraordinary Negotiations carrying on there. It is said that the Cardinal Camerlingue Abani, Protector of the Crown of Poland, and one of the greatest Politicians in Europe, is assiduously employ'd in contriving proper Measures for placing the Imperial Crown on the Head of his Polish Majesty. In order to this he labours to engage his Holiness to recommend this Prince to the Electors of Mentz and Triers, who with Brandenburg and Hanover, and his own Vote of Saxony, might put the Affair out of Dispute. Some People pretend to think this Project very feasible; certain it is, that the before-mention'd Prelate, and Count Lignasco his Polish Majesty's Minister at this Court, have frequent Audiences of the Pope, and receive and dispatch Couriers daily about this Affair.

'By a Letter from a Person of great Distinction at Venice, dated the 28th ult. I am inform'd that two Treaties are at present negotiating, one for securing the Neutrality of Italy, and the other for restoring the Peace of Germany, both of which are said to be far advanced, particularly the latter; whereby it is said her Hungarian Majesty will be enabled to preserve the Remainder of her Dominions, and even to recover Austria.

'Letters from Passau, dated the 29th of October acquaint us, that a considerable Body of French Troops are actually return'd thither, in order to cover the Frontiers of Bavaria from the threatened Invasion on the Side of Tyrol, which is become a very serious Affair, and will it be believed hinder the Siege of Vienna for this Season.

'Various Letters from Cologne of the 6th and 7th Instant assert, that the Marshal Mallebois is not a little displeased, at the Magistrates of this City's refusing to suffer the Troops which escorted him from Dusseldorp to his Head Quarters at Calcum, to pass thro' that Place, notwithstanding the Compliment that was made him on that Occasion.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, Nov. 15. N.S.

'Our last Letters from Vienna of the 11th Inst. bring us some extraordinary Pieces of News. It appears from them, that the Affairs of her Hungarian Majesty begin daily to wear a better Aspect. Prince Lobkowitz's Army in Bohemia has been join'd by the Regiments of Seckendorf, Harrach, Wencelas Wallis, Ogilvi and Botta, so that he is now strong enough to look the Enemy in the Face, and it is said has Orders not to decline Fighting, in case a proper Occasion offer'd. His Royal Highness the Grand Duke and his Brother Prince Charles of Lorraine are to set out for the Army on the 4th Instant, and as soon as the Hungarian Troops have join'd those under the Command of Count Neuperg, we are assur'd they will immediately seek out the French and Bavarians in order to give them Battle. We also expect with Impatience News from Tyrol, where the whole Country is in Motion, and many thousands of Regular Troops and Militia ready to pour into the Bavarian Territories like a Deluge, as they did in the last War. It is impossible to express the Excesses committed by the Bavarian Troops in Austria, where they have not only plunder'd the People of every thing that they had, without Respect to Age, Sex or Quality, but have also ruin'd and destroy'd what they could not carry away, and have taken with them several Ecclesiasticks and Persons of Distinction, in order to force from them

Large Sums by way of Ransom. We were some time before we could learn the true Motives which induced the Bavarians to slight their advanced Posts and to retire back to Ens, but we are since inform'd, that it was chiefly occasion'd by the Elector's Indisposition, which was at first said to be slight, but proves to be a Fever attended with a Spitting of Blood.

We have Advice from Stockholm by Letters of the 3d Instant, that three French Couriers are arriv'd there in the Space of a Week, who are suppos'd to have brought Dispatches of Importance in relation to the War. The Populace are extremely angry with Lieut. Gen. Buddenbroeck, who 'tis said might have sustain'd General Wrangel, and prevented the late Misfortune in Finland. News is expected every Hour of another Engagement in that Country, our General having express'd Orders to fight the Russians as soon as an Opportunity offers. Notwithstanding all this, many People here are of Opinion that by the Mediation of a certain Court, a Negotiation will be shortly set on foot for restoring the Peace of the North.

Letters from Lisbon of the 10th of October advise, that the Day before a Squadron of 18 English Men of War, with several Transports, appeared off of the Bar, upon which the Commandant of one of the Forts by Order of his Majesty sent to inform the Admiral, that he expected he should either enter the Haven or sail Speedily; and accordingly the Squadron the next Day continued their Voyage to Gibraltar.

Last Week died at her Seat at Liddlington in the County of Bedford, the Lady Chernocke, Mother to the present Sir Boteler Chernocke, Bart. Member of Parliament for the Town of Bedford.

Yesterday an Express arriv'd at S. James's, with an Account that Sir John Norris was return'd with the Fleet under his Command to Spithead.

On Saturday last the Right Hon. the Earl of Chesterfield, arriv'd in Town at his House in Grosvenor's-square from France.

The Information we had on Saturday last that a thousand Lottery Tickets would be sold at Barton's Coffee-house on the 16th inst. upon Enquiry appears to be without Foundation.

On Saturday last a Dispensation pass'd the Great Seal to enable the Rev. Bertie Henley, M. A. Chaplain to the Right Hon. the Earl of Poulter, to hold the Rectory of Upwman in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter, together with the Rectory of Sampford Peverell in the County and Diocese aforesaid.

The same Day a Presentation pass'd the Great Seal to enable the Rev. Thomas Richards, M. A. to hold the Rectory of Hempton in the County of Suffolk and Diocese of Norwich.

Also a Presentation to enable the Rev. Daniel Rennington, M. A. to hold the Rectory of St. John Baptist in the City and Diocese of Gloucester.

Likewise a Presentation to enable the Rev. Nicholas Neech, M. A. to hold the Rectory of Bridgham in the County of Norfolk and Diocese of Norwich.

Also a Grant pass'd the Great Seal unto John Fanshaw, D. D. of a Canonry in the Cathedral Church of Christ at Oxford, as also a Grant of the Office of Regius Professor of Divinity in the said University.

Yesterday died Mr. Fletcher Gyles, Bookseller in Holbourn, one of the most eminent in that Trade, and of a truly valuable and unblemish'd Character.

This Day the Wages, to the 10th of June, due to the Company of his Majesty's Ship the Torrington, will be paid at the Pay Office in Broad-street.

Sir WALTER RALEGH's History of the World is a Work of so vast a Compass, such endless Variety, that no Genius, but one adventurous as his own, durst have undertaken that great Design. I do not apprehend any great Difficulty in collecting and common-placing an Universal History from the whole Body of Historians; that is nothing but mechanic Labour. But to digest the several Authors in his Mind, to take in all their Majesties, Strength, and Beauty, to raise the Spirit of meaner Historians, and to equal all the Excellencies of the best, is Sir Walter's peculiar Praise. His Style is the most perfect, the happiest, and most beautiful of the Age he wrote in, majestic, clear and manly; and he appears everywhere so superior, rather than unequal to his Subject, that the Spirit of Rome and Athens seems to be breathed into his Work.

These two Remedies need no other Recommendation, themselves will manifest in two or three Days using, that their admirable and even astonishing Success, gained by their justly deserved, both in City and Country, after wearing Trusses for many Years to no Purpose.

For by the Blessing of God, they make a perfect Cure either on Old or Young, in a very little Time, and for a Charge, without any Pain to, or Confinement of the Patient, one Parcel is generally sufficient for a complete Cure, especially on a young Person.

Many Hundreds of all Ages and Sexes have been cured by them, which occasioned this Publication, for the Good of the Publick, that all such unhappy People may be delivered from the Charge and Slavery of always wearing Trusses.

The World might have had many Certificates of the Persons of all Ages, from Children of a few Months grown Persons of 60 Years or upwards; but that they are naturally averse to let it be known, that they are such an Infirmity: Yet Mr. Sandwell can satisfy the Quirer of the Validity of what is here said, tho' he had such large Knowledge, by reason of the most good Reasons, removed.

Mr. Richard Shergold, Printer to the Honourable the Commissioners of the Lottery, 1741, at his Office in Pope's Head Alley, over-against the Royal Exchange, Cornhill, buys and sells Tickets and Shares of Tickets in the said Lottery. He likewise disposes of Tickets in the same advantageous Manner to the Adventurer as he did in former Lotteries, making a considerable Abatement from the common Price of Tickets. The Method will be fully explain'd to such Persons as will call at his Office aforeaid. As it is very fair, and easily understood, it is not doubted but those who think proper to be inform'd thereof will find it much to their Satisfaction. The Lottery will begin drawing the 23d Instant, therefore it is now a suitable Time to apply about it.

TO THE PUBLICK,

And for the Information of all those who have more Money than Wit, and know not how to calculate the Disadvantage of the present Lottery,

with any single Ticket

it is but 54 to 1, that you get a 17 l. Prize

109 to 1, ————— 42 l. 10 s.

274 to 1, ————— 85

1374 to 1, ————— 425

2749 to 1, ————— 850

5499 to 1, ————— 1700

18332 to 1, ————— 4250

27499 to 1, ————— 8500

Some few Persons having engrossed most part of the Tickets with Design to make you pay an extravagant Price for them, have used all the little Arts they could think of to raise the Tickets (which are worth no more than 4 l. 5 s.) to 5 l. 10 s. with Design to bubble you of your Money. Therefore, as you may see by the above Calculation how difficult it is to get a Prize above 8 l. 10 s. let the Bubbles keep their Tickets, and they will be fairly bit.

Tom Tell-truth.

On the 23d of this Month, at Nine in the Forenoon, begins the Drawing of the Lottery at Stationers Hall in Ludgate-Street; and if, by the best Information I can get, I am rightly inform'd, and which hitherto my Customers as well as myself have Reason to believe that I have not been deceiv'd, as most evidently has appear'd by the gradual Rise of the Price of Tickets since I first publish'd, there are at present so small a Quantity of Tickets left at the Bank, or in the Hands of those that will dispose of them before the Drawing, that if the present Demand continues a few Days, there will be none left to furnish such of my Friends who usually wait till the last Week: So great are the Effects of there being 10000 Tickets less than there were in the last Lottery, and so many more Prizes of Consequence.

From my Lottery Office, the oldest at Charing-Cross, Nov. 9, 1741.
